Learning and Understanding

Policing and Safety Philosophy: Education

UPD offers comprehensive training, resources and other materials to help educate community members about ways to respond during active shooter incidents.

- University-Specific Active Shooter Safety Video
- In-Person Active Shooter Safety Presentation
- Crime Prevention through Environmental Design Assessments

Addressing Criminal Activity

Policing and Safety Philosophy: Enforcement

UPD officers take criminal activity seriously and work with allied police departments and other public safety departments to address crime on and near campus.

During Active Shooter incidents,

- Law enforcement officials are focused on immediately stopping the threat
- Emergency responders and officers will form rescue teams to treat and transport people with injuries
- Officials may ask community members to remain in area until a situation is under control
- Emergency Alerts

Staying Informed and Taking Action

Policing and Safety Philosophy: Empowerment

We strive to offer information and resources so that they may take proactive safety measures, stay vigilant, report concerning behavior and maintain options about ways to respond during emergencies.

- Safety Resource Guide
- Run, Hide, Fight Model
- SDSU Safe Mobile App Reporting Tools
- Personal Safety & Awareness Training
