Townhall on the
HISTORY OF ETHNIC STUDIES
October 29, 2019
2:00pm – 3:30pm
North Education Building, Room 60

Film Screening:
On Strike! Ethnic Studies 1969-1999 (35 min)
Q&A following the film

Q&A Panel to include:
Dr. Adisa A. Alkebulan, Chair, Africana Studies
Dr. Maria Ibarra, Chair, Chicana & Chicano Studies
Dr. David Kamper, Chair, Native American Studies
Dr. Sandra Wawrytko, Director,
Center for Asian & Pacific Studies
Dr. Roberto D. Hernández, Chicana & Chicano Studies

Learn about the history of Ethnic Studies as academic disciplines, their relationship to traditional disciplines and social movements of the 1960s-70s

Reflect on the socio-cultural dynamics that shaped the need for Ethnic Studies across our state and nation and the role Ethnic Studies continues to play in advancing social justice for everyone

Understand the recent push for Ethnic Studies as a high school and possible CSU requirement

Co-Sponsored by the Department of Africana Studies, American Indian Studies, Chicana & Chicano Studies, Center for Asian & Pacific Studies